[REDACTED], date of birth [REDACTED], home address [REDACTED] [REDACTED], Oklahoma City, Oklahoma 73118, telephone number [REDACTED] [REDACTED], was interviewed at Oklahoma City Field Office, 3301 West Memorial Road, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma 73134. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and the nature of the interview, [REDACTED] provided the following information:

Jeffrey Epstein raped [REDACTED] when she was 19 years old. In 2001, she met Jordana Feldman in New York and paid her $1 to retain her as her personal attorney after telling her about the rape. She no longer has a relationship with Feldman. In July of 2020, [REDACTED] submitted a claim to the Jeffrey Epstein Victim Compensation Fund. She had an interview with five members from the fund but the panel denied her claim. [REDACTED] did not think it was fair that five non-victims were making $100,000 a year to judge who received money from the fund. After she was denied, she tried calling and scheduling a meeting with members of the fund but was ignored. After being ignored, she "went a little nuts and almost killed herself." She was upset that Feldman took her story and used it to make money as the administrator of the fund. [REDACTED] started a Facebook page titled, "[REDACTED] Tells the Truth About Corrupt Jordana Feldman." The fund has no checks and balances, and is paying out the victims' claims to Feldman's law firm.

[Agent Note: At this point in the interview, the interviewing Agent formally admonished [REDACTED] and informed her that she will be federally prosecuted if she makes one more attempt to contact the Jeffrey Epstein Victim Compensation Fund or Jordana Feldman. The interviewing Agent also provided [REDACTED] with a crisis services packet, which included numerous local mental health resources.]

[REDACTED] sent an email to Feldman before arriving for this interview but now she "will never contact those people again." She requested that interviewing Agent call New York and tell them that she promised not to contact them again.

Years ago, [REDACTED] called in to the FBI and spoke with Special Agent (SA) [REDACTED] about a "weird guy." [REDACTED] identified this individual as Cesar Sayoc. SA Ricks told her that he would put the information in Sentinel and she would get a reward if he ever got in trouble. After Sayoc was convicted, [REDACTED] went to claim her reward but she was told her name was not in the file.
