When you place a security freeze on your Equifax credit report, you will be provided a 10-digit personal identification number (PIN) to use if you choose to temporarily lift or permanently remove the security freeze from your credit report. To make either request, you can contact Equifax by phone or mail and provide all the following:

1. Proper identification.
2. The unique PIN provided by Equifax when you placed the security freeze.
3. If requesting a temporary lift, specify the period of time for which the credit report is to be available (for example, from March 15, 2018 to March 21, 2018).

You can also create or sign into your account on www.equifax.com to authorize the temporary lift or permanent removal of your security freeze from your Equifax credit report.

Equifax will authorize the release of your credit report within one hour after receiving the above information if the request is by phone or electronic means or no later than three business days when a written request is submitted.

Placing, lifting, and removing a security freeze on your Equifax credit report is free.

Experian's Credit Profile Report

Files on more than 215 million credit-active consumers nationwide are maintained in Experian's database. Your inquiry initiates a search of this database, which produces an applicant's credit history — the Credit Profile Report. An illustration and description of a sample Credit Profile Report follow.

Reminder: To ensure compliance with the Fair Credit Reporting Act, reasonable care should be taken to input accurate identification belonging to the consumer when requesting services.
