Peter Mandelson

As you may have seen, in a truly disturbing turn of events he is set to be appointed to the UK ambassador to the US.

I'm working on a piece for The Sun about how wrong this is and how Mandelson's links to Epstein should disqualify him from the post.

I'd like to speak to you about when you saw Mandelson and Epstein together and what you think of Mandelson's appointment.

I would need to speak to you today (Friday) or early ish tomorrow UK time, so by early afternoon.

Please let me know if you can help.

You can reach me on the following number, regular phone or whatsapp: .

Thanks very much and look forward to hearing from you,

Daniel
