

[Redacted] v. J.P. Morgan

> ----- Forwarded message -----

> From: [Redacted]

> Date: Tue, 5 Aug 2023 at 15:08

> Subject: [Redacted] v. J.P. Morgan

> To: [Redacted]

> [Redacted]

> To whom it may concern

> May I introduce myself ?

> My name is The Honourable [Redacted]. I am a [Redacted]

> Citizen. My date of birth is [Redacted] and born in [Redacted]

> The statement I shall give is true and accurate, I have not falsified > or embellished any information. I have not been coerced into providing > this account.

> During the year of 1908, I was currently living in [Redacted]

> One evening in June, I was brutally attacked. A man broke into my > house via the front door using an axe. I was beaten up severally and > kept hostage for many hours, my home was smashed up as well. I > eventually managed to escape, I was covered in blood etc. A couple > passing by alerted the police and ambulance. I was taken to hospital.

> In the interim, my daughter [Redacted] was called and she came down > to [Redacted] I think, it's fair to say she was horrified, not only > by my condition but also by the state of my house. The place was > unliveable. My daughter suggested that I should stay with her in > [Redacted] I complied.

> [Redacted], was living in a lovely house in [Redacted] with her dog called > [Redacted] My understanding was that she had met a gentleman called [Redacted] > who moved into her property. I had not met [Redacted] before. As you can > expect I was clearly traumatised by recent events in [Redacted]

> It appeared to me that they were a " couple", who did all the normal > things i.e. going out together, eating, watching movies and sharing the

