I hope you're well, it's Daniel Bates, the British journalist.

I was wondering if you would consider talking to me about what you remember of Peter Mandelson?

He's one of Epstein's buddies and you had some photos of them in St Barry's together.

I know The Sun would likely compensate you for your time if you had some thoughts on whether he's suitable to be the UK ambassador to the US which, by an extraordinary turn of events, he's just been appointed.

Please let me know if you'd like to speak.

All the best,

Daniel Bates
