We executed a search of Epstein's residence last night in Manhattan, we didn't finish until 6:30 a.m. this morning. We seized several items from the home including numerous binders containing labels referencing victims in this case, cd's and images of young girls, some of which were borderline CP. We seized some pictures hanging on the walls which depicted young girls, and numerous other images/pictures scattered throughout the house containing depictions of young females. We also seized several plaster casted busts of female breasts. We are in the process of approaching co-conspirators and serving GJ subpoenas. Victim interviews will commence in the next few days. I will keep you posted on future developments, that's all I have right now. Let me know if you have any questions.

Good morning [REDACTED],

News article from CNN and Daily Beast came out last night on the arrest of Epstein yesterday with a court date set for Monday. Anything else of significance that EM should know?

Thanks,
