We're under time pressure but I think the most important thing is that your folks have the time you need to do the job in a way you're comfortable with—being able to scan each document separately, dealing with any random scraps of paper, post-its, etc etc. If doing the best possible job requires an extra few days that's totally understandable, especially given the holiday. Thanks again for the focus on it, and for following up.

I got the scan request thanks.

How much wiggle room can I get on the deadline we originally talked about of 7/10? I'm concerned that with the boxes going from 15 to 22 and now not showing up until sometime tomorrow and Thursday a holiday the 10th is going to be extremely tight. Can I extend out at all to the 16th? If not I understand and we'll work to make it work somehow.

My apologies, apparently with a Fedex pickup this size an appointment had to be setup. The pickup was scheduled for today and will arrive in VA tomorrow, tracking number 4744 7647 0418.
Thanks,

Quickly following up on this, can we confirm the boxes went out last week?

I just want to follow-up that the boxes were shipped. Fedex is not showing anything in-bound for us today.

Thanks very much for chatting earlier today, and as promised wanted to send an email so you have our full contact info. My colleague [REDACTED] and I are the prosecutors working on the investigation – she’s also copied here, and we’re available anytime via email, or by phone at:

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

It’s our understanding that there are approximately 23 boxes of papers, give or take, and that they include approximately two boxes from FBI case file 72-MM-113327 and the remainder from FBI case file 31E-MM-108062. Please don’t hesitate to reach out if anything comes up at all, or if we can be of any help, and thanks very much for putting this at the top of your list, we really appreciate it.

thanks again,
