Victor said he has his own business and has computer knowledge. Victor has a work tool that allows Victor to research and look up addresses, telephone numbers, etc.

Victor said he has done reverse research on the domain mentioned in Jeffrey Epstein's black book ellmax.com. The domain for ellmax.com registrar was not private. Three names were listed David Lampert, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] along with a contact number [REDACTED] which is registered to [REDACTED]. Victor said this information is related to the Delta accounts and alias of Epstein's friend Ghislaine Maxwell. Victor said he reset Jeffrey Epstein's delta.com account by using "forgot my password." Using Epstein's member number in the black book. Victor said he answered security questions which asked for email address and public address. Victor said he used Epstein's home address which is publicly posted and used Turners email address which was listed on ellmax.com. Victor said he would be glad to share the new password with the FBI.

Victor said he saved the screenshots of the Delta account and white pages with Burns addresses.
