How about this?
"FBI New York is renewing an appeal for any possible victims of Jeffrey Epstein to call 1-800-CALL-FBI. If you have been victimized by Jeffrey Epstein, we would really like to hear from you."

I am OK with either version however I don't love the idea of promising them help, maybe say " If you have been victimized by Jeffrey Epstein we want to hear from you."
Just my 2 cents

A couple victims said they called us after much deliberation. I'd suggest we personalize it to get direct with them.

Please see below. If you have suggestion or changes please let [REDACTED] know. We also discussed possibly doing an on camera interview following any new indictments although this may not be necessary if there is a press conference.

[REDACTED] - does this work?

FBI New York is renewing an appeal for any possible victims of Jeffrey Epstein to call 1-800-CALL-FBI. We believe there are more victims out there who have not contacted us, and we would like to talk with them.
