Good Afternoon,

Thank you for your response.

If you choose to drive to the location, mileage and parking can be reimbursed. As the briefing will be held in a federal building, we are requesting some personal information needed to meet security requirements. Please complete and return the attached 'RSVP Questionnaire' so we can better assist you.

Respectfully,
FBI Victim Services Division

[REDACTED]

I have copied our client [REDACTED] to this email. She would like to attend the FBI briefing in Florida on October 15. We have provided her with her notification from your office, so she has the details for the meeting. She will not need transportation, but she would like to bring someone with her for support.

Thank you so much,
