Thanks [REDACTED]. Please also see excerpt of an email from [REDACTED]:

"I have completed the form in case it is required that I travel to Florida to receive the information. I continue to hope that arrangements for my participation via a video link will be possible. In speaking with [REDACTED] [REDACTED], as I understood things, that was the plan. My organization ([REDACTED]) is strongly discouraging travel at this time, due to COVID-19. It may be the case that others who are interested in participating are in a similar situation. I have very elderly parents and I have trying to remain as much "in a bubble" as possible to reduce any risk of transmission. All of my teaching at [REDACTED] [REDACTED], for example, is via remote, video linkages. Cross-country travel for two days would, of course, create increased risk.

Thank you in advance for considering my request for video participation in the meeting. If it would be useful, I would be happy to contact our U.S. Attorney's Office here in Utah to try and facilitate arrangements. I know our very capable U.S. Attorney, Jon Huber, and his staff of excellent attorneys and victim support personnel, and believe that they would be willing to try and facilitate whatever logistical arrangements need to be made."

That is 6A.M. to 9A.M. in Los Angeles. Can't they change the time to the afternoon to take into account victims in L.A. and Western states if victims here and in Western states can go to FBI offices here?

Have there been any decisions re using a secure line for victims who can't go to an FBI office? What if victims are quarantining? What is being done for those who need to shelter in place?

I have no idea if that is an option for them. I will ask if that is accepted as an option. Some of our clients are also living in other countries and some are in the U.S., but live in areas where it will be unlikely that they live in close proximity to an F.B.I. office.

Hi Gloria! Hope you are doing ok! Thank you so much for getting back to me so quickly! We have a call tomorrow morning with DOJ and I will give them this information to see if they have any alternative ideas. If available - would your clients be open to going to one of our local offices if they could view from there? I will ask if that is an option.

Stay safe and speak with you soon-

Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for checking in about the briefing.

We have notified all of our Epstein clients including some who are not on your list, but who have spoken to DOJ prosecutors. To date, we have not received any responses from our clients indicating that they are interested in flying to Miami and or attending in person. I will notify you promptly if any of our clients plan to attend. I do think that given Covid-19, that DOJ should provide some other alternative, like a secure phone line or a Zoom or similar link for victims to be able to call, rather than taking a flight. Requiring that victims appear in person to obtain this information seems unreasonable to me under the circumstances of Covid, and may be upsetting to them if appearing in person is the only way that they are able to learn this information.

Please let me know if there are any questions, and if a secure alternative can be provided.

Thank you so much.
