For the NY HSI deferred actions all you need is the deferred action letter and the criminal history. If they are in ICE custody then the letter and threat assessment need to go to ERO HQ.

Hi [REDACTED] - I thought there was a list that says what is needed to file for deferred Action. Is there something that can help us determine if this is the right immigration remedy for this particular individual ?

Thanks [REDACTED]!

Good morning [REDACTED],

I'm not sure what you mean by a check list for deferred action. The type of deferred action and the paperwork needed would be determined by the applicants current status.

Hi [REDACTED] - I hope this email finds you safe and sound! I am reaching out to see if you happen to have the check list for Deferred Action on the green side?

Thanks
