[REDACTED],

We have spoken to the victims' attorneys and they would prefer for the meeting to take place in S.FL. We will not be engaging the USAO because they have been recused from this matter.

I am happy to reach out directly to FBI VSD management. Who is the best point of contact?

Thanks,

Good Morning [REDACTED],

I hope you are doing well. I had a call last week with [REDACTED] at EOUSA who informed me that she would speak to her management about this briefing as well. I believe [REDACTED] will be reaching out to you. At this point, FBI VSD would like to know what support USAO is providing and if our assistance is needed. If it is needed, we are more than happy to have that conversation to determine if a request should be made directly to our management.

Thanks,

Hello [REDACTED],

I hope all is well. We wanted to update you that [REDACTED] and I have just now spoken to two of the attorneys, Brad Edwards and Paul Cassell. They believe Florida would be the best location for the meeting given that most victims that they represent are located there and, due to the pandemic, most victims will prefer not to travel. (They mentioned a conveniently located FBI building in Broward; would that be the main field office in Miramar?) We would still like to hold the meeting sometime in the next two or three weeks if at all possible.

Would you be available to discuss at some point tomorrow, including with any Florida field office victim assistance specialists if they are available? We are free from Noon to 1:30 PM, or after 2:30 PM.

Thank you,

[REDACTED]

Good afternoon,

The Department is in the early stages of planning a meeting with the victims. Because you have been dealing directly with the victims, I want to discuss the best way to proceed forward.

I will send you a calendar invite for tomorrow from 3:30-4:30 p.m. I will also reach out to [REDACTED] as well.

Thanks
