Hi [REDACTED],

Just wanted to send this along for your awareness. Our media office received this request. I told our PAO, this was not an LA investigation rather NY. Our PAO will likely contact yours, she wasn't sure if NY ever publicly confirmed, but want to give you a heads up as well in case you are asked. Also I'm not sure if this investigative reporter will contact your office direct or not.

Thanks,

Hi Grant,

As a matter of policy, the FBI does not confirm or deny the existence of investigations.

Thank you,

H [REDACTED],

I'm reporter Grant Hodgson based in LA. I am working on assignment for London's "The Sunday Mirror" newspaper.

May I please ask if you can comment on the following?

I have been passed information about how Prince Andrew and his London-based law firm Matrix Law is liaising with the US-based law firm Blackfords which is liaising with the FBI regards its investigation into Jeffrey Epstein and related inquiries such as Ghislaine Maxwell.

I am told that in the past few weeks, Prince Andrew's law firm, Matrix Law, has been providing information regards a well-known photograph of Prince Andrew with Ghislaine Maxwell and alleged sex trafficking victim [REDACTED] (a copy of the pic is attached), this photo was taken in London reportedly by Jeffrey Epstein at Ghislaine Maxwell's home.

This photo, and its authenticity, is important because the Prince has denied meeting [REDACTED] alleges she has had sex with the Prince.

Are you able to comment on how the FBI is now liaising with these law firms and through them, Prince Andrew, about this photo and the investigation into Jeffrey Epstein and Ghislaine Maxwell?

Sincere thanks,

Grant
