Hey there,

The AUSA needs to agree to submit a motion to the judge allowing a CRC into the courthouse and then also into the courtroom. We have a pony that can be used. We have not been overly successful getting CRCs into the federal court though as defense attorneys make an argument that the jury is biased. We have been more successful using them in sentencing.

H [REDACTED] not sure if you are aware the Maxwell Trial begins November 29th with four victims testifying. I'm with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] now and told them [REDACTED] is available to assist with victims during trial. I told her I'm not familiar with the process - can you tell them how ?

Thanks -
