[REDACTED],

The folks at Sanctuary for Families are putting a lot of pressure on me (they need to send this out today, there are no extensions, and a letter from law enforcement is crucial). I have cut down the letter to be totally barebones. I realize that [REDACTED] is away until next week. Might someone else be able to sign something like this substantially pared down letter today? I feel terrible about all of this.

Please let me know.

Thanks so much for your consideration.

Erica

Thanks so much. I really appreciate it. I know this is a terrible pain but we are desperate to get it out on time (they don't give extensions) and I feel like an idiot for making the mistake.

Erica,

Unfortunately I'm not in NYC this week. I'll see what I can do but I don't know that I'll be able to turn this around to you by tomorrow. I'll keep you posted.

Please don't hate me. We were about to submit everything to [REDACTED] and I realized that I inadvertently made a mistake in the draft. [REDACTED] (...). All other facts and dates in the letter are correct. I am attaching a redlined version so you can see the correction. We desperately need to correct this asap because we want to make sure everything that we submit is accurate. I am so sorry because I know you were crazy busy and still got this done for us. This is all very important for [REDACTED] so I really appreciate anything you can do to get the corrected letter in time. We have at the very latest until this Wednesday to send this out overnight to [REDACTED]. Thanks so much for everything and please let me know if you have any questions.

Hi [REDACTED] and Angela,

As indicated, we are working with Sanctuary for Families on [REDACTED].

[REDACTED]

Attached is the letter which your office graciously provided back in 2022, which we submitted in support of the application, as well as an email chain with AUSA Alex Rossmiller regarding the visa issue in 2020.

Alex is cc-ed here (hi Alex – I hope you are doing well).

We would really appreciate a short letter from your office or the Justice Department on this issue.

I am sorry to send another email on this but we are trying to send out the full response to [REDACTED] by June 20th.

I hope this isn't presumptuous but, because of the time constraints, attached is a draft letter with some proposed language and information.

This is just a suggestion and possible guide if your office is inclined to submit a letter. Please feel free to cut down or modify anything.

Please email any letter directly to me and we will incorporate it into the response to [REDACTED].

As you may know, [REDACTED]

They are supporting [REDACTED].

We really appreciate your continued support of [REDACTED] who is working on her healing and finally trying to put all of this behind her.

Thanks and please let me know if you have any questions.

Very truly yours,

Erica

Hi Jessica,

I was out of the office for a while and have been working on this this week. There are some approvals on our end we have to go through. I should have this to you in the next few days.

Dear [REDACTED],

I hope you had a restful weekend. As we last discussed, attached please find draft documents ([REDACTED] [REDACTED]) for your review and signature with respect to [REDACTED]. Of course, please feel free to modify as necessary. Erica and I would be happy to join a call if you have any questions. Thank you again for your support.

Kind Regards,

Jessica
