I would assume so. The top 2 items on the list are what he had on him at arrest, the numbers end in 18 and 19, I believe.

Oh right, yes, it was [REDACTED]. So would the iPhone on this and one of the iPads be a duplicate of what she gave me? I assume yes but just want to confirm. Thanks again.

I didn't supply a thumb drive last week. Maybe that was [REDACTED]? All the numbers match the spreadsheet I just gave you. His phone is top of the list.

I thought the phone and iPad that he had on him at the time of the arrest were on the thumb drive that you gave me last week – is that not right? Is it possible to just send me the ID numbers that correspond to the seven items on this hard drive, and the two items on the thumb drive from last week?

All 6 iPads and the phone he had on him at arrest. There is still an old iPhone 5 down at HQ being unlocked.
