Circling back regarding [REDACTED], who we initially thought we'd be able to meet with months ago but then obviously didn't, I spoke again with her lawyer today and he suggested contacting her directly. He also said he'd let her know that [REDACTED] would be trying to reach out to her. He provided her current number as: [REDACTED].

[REDACTED], if you could please try her this week? Her attorney said she's not great at following up, but we can give it a shot and hope for the best. Let me know if any other info would be helpful, and thanks very much.
