

██████████
██████
██████

- Asked JB whether he wants counsel, told JB could have an attorney appointed if he could not afford one; JB said he did not feel he needed or wanted a lawyer
- JE received between 2 and 4 massages every day when he was in Palm Beach
- JE's massage appointments were set up through his assistants (██████████, ██████████)
- JB received phone call from assistants that people were coming at certain time to give JE massages; when person rang doorbell, JB let her in; most of time, they waited in kitchen; JB waited until ████████ or ████████ showed up and took person up to massage room
- JB did not recall answering phone calls where people said they wanted to give a massage
- People who came to give JE massages did not wear uniforms; they wore casual clothes (jeans, t-shirts, sneakers, sweatpants)
- People giving massages were female; they were not professional, trained masseuses; they did not show up with equipment to give massages
- JB saw some females waiting outside house, JB thought they were waiting for someone to pick them up after massage
- JB sometimes saw females walking to ring doorbell; most of the time heard doorbell and let females in
- Sometimes more than one female came at a time; JB remembers one time when two girls came, one girl waited in the kitchen and one went upstairs; JB doesn't remember what the girls looked like; the two girls seemed like friends; came together and left together after certain period of time; they were young girls (high school age)
- Impression was they were young; under 20 years old
- JB understood that all the girls coming to give massages were "school girls"
- JB's impression was that all the girls coming for appointments were high school girls
- JB sometimes heard the girls talk about school; does not know what grade they were in
- JB overheard the girls talk about soccer games, time to go to classes; JB doesn't remember which classes
- JB started seeing school girls at the PB house within a few days of when JB started working there