- At first tea w/ Epstein, just Epstein, were present

- referred to him as her godfather

- Epstein would discourage her from eating too much

For long time [redacted] thought how could a grown woman do this? And she had convinced herself maybe she wasn't so bad, and came to understand she was a way bigger monster than she ever gave her credit for. [redacted] heard from [redacted] a while back who said Maxwell tortured her & her life was ruined

Maxwell was always involved, but it was always subtle psychological manipulations

Maxwell is a monster, but it's hard to describe she was complicit & always smoothed things over

It's hard to explain how she is a monster

She was the monster lurking in the shadows the entire time, but she has fewer specific instances about her because she was always trying & Epstein is at the forefront of her memories because he was such a force

Second time [redacted] was chased, GM was there "we're going upstairs now."

- Both JE & GM gave her money, but it was mainly JE who gave money
- Would be nice to express gratitude to them
- would write thank you notes to them

[redacted]

GX 107 - checked her hair at 15
Remembers JE saying what have you done to yourself

GX 106 was December when she was 13,
[redacted]

GX 108 at 17
got this from [redacted] when [redacted]
asked for photos
- remembers the necklace of the outfit
- Necklace given to her by [redacted]

A house near named Jean would pick her up & drive her home
GM's wife worked there

GM was on more than half of trips, involved in travel arrangements

Traveled every few weeks during PB years

- Message room was dark, maybe carpeted, almost like a large closet
- Had a message table in it
- Felt dark & muted, doesn't recall decor/photos

Whenever she was in there her stomach felt ill & she focused on thinking: oh please, don't do anything to me.

- PB had a message room, off bedroom, not quite as elaborate

PB house had a lot of ~~with~~ phallic art & photos of naked art

Same in MRC house

Had a photo of her on desk in PB office

All had weird ostentatious art (decor

↳ in a bathing suit

Recalls being home as a teenager & throwing up from drinking and had to take care of her because [redacted] wasn't there

One of the first few times he advised her she came home & showered right away. She was crying. [redacted] asked why she was showering & she said leave me alone

At age 23, had dinner with [REDACTED] - not sure exactly the year [REDACTED] said "I've been hearing things, I said you should go after that person, you could sue."

Thought that was gross, [REDACTED] was all about money, that upset her because [REDACTED] would pay any amount of money for this to not have happened

[REDACTED]

Felt indebted to them - never really liked them, but felt she should be grateful, that she was special because they liked her

For compensation fund, had to have a psychological evaluation, she internalized

Received 5 million, got 2.9 after attorney's fees

At some point, Maxwell's attorneys didn't want to drop the case after she settled it & then tried to get money from her
