Re: [REDACTED] Grand Jury Subpoena

Dear [REDACTED]:

By agreement, on January 25, 2007, [REDACTED] served me with a grand jury subpoena for my client, [REDACTED] to appear on February 13, 2007. I indicated that [REDACTED] would assert her rights under the Fifth Amendment and on consent, the appearance has been extended. You have asked me to set out the basis for my request and that you apply through appropriate channels for a formal grant of use immunity for [REDACTED]. I do so here.

As I indicated to you when we conversed last week, [REDACTED] is no longer employed by Mr. Epstein, but has read much of what can be found on the Internet about the investigation of Mr. Epstein. From that review, she is aware that the police considered charging several persons close to Mr. Epstein, including at least one employee. Given that, and the seemingly broad scope of the investigation, [REDACTED] asserts her rights under the Fifth Amendment.

Indeed, considering that both the state authorities in Palm Beach County and your office are conducting investigations, there is every reason for her to be concerned and therefore to assert her constitutional rights. If you continue to want her to appear before a grand jury, be advised that she will assert her rights under the Fifth Amendment unless there is a formal grant of immunity.

If you should have any questions regarding the above, please feel free to contact me.

Very truly yours,
