SA [REDACTED]

- Lives in WPB
- Court reporter starting in the 80s or late 70s. Started in Supreme Court – Brooklyn. Retired with husband (who also worked in Supreme Court) to Florida 1993. Went back to work in 2001. Became freelancers. Worked for US Legal Support. Did that for 12-13 years, retired again in 2015.
- [REDACTED]
- Last came up to NY before the pandemic – still has family here. Comes 2x year.
- When worked for US Legal (then Consor & Associates), wrote down verbatim depo on a machine/computer (not shorthand), go home, listen to the recording and proofread, and then send it to US Legal Support to be printed and sold to the attorneys. Kept copy for five years.
- Thinks she signed/certified after proofread before sent to US Legal but doesn't remember exactly
- Would recognize her signature – probably matches her old signature. (Had to change after stroke, but it's on her DL.)
- Showed 3504-009.
  - Recognized signatures on pp. 25-26, and certifications are her standard certifications forms.
  - P. 1 is also how her transcripts looked.
  - Does not remember this particular transcript, but did a lot of work with Dahliah Wiess – did a lot of work with her. Remembers name Donnie Murrell.
  - Rest of the document looks standard to SS.
