Thanks very much, [REDACTED]. Do you have time for a call this afternoon? We are trying to figure out the most efficient way to review all of these files, and it would be helpful to discuss.

[REDACTED],
So, NYC024329 is on a disk I still have here, it was grouped with NYC024353 which is still processing. All the other Macs were processed with the same machine, so we are stacked up here. Will see if I can come up with a solution to that.

As for NYC024342, that was a wiped drive. There is no data on it. Once you are done using the drives I gave you yesterday, please return them so I can load up the next batch. Thanks.

Hi [REDACTED],

Thank you so much for dropping off the image and video files from the Epstein devices earlier today. I've looked through all the drives, and it appears that the folders for device number NYC024342 are empty. Is it right that there were no images or videos extracted from that device?

And I believe we are still waiting on images and videos from the below devices (but please let me know if I'm wrong):

NYC024328
NYC024329
NYC024329
NYC024353
NYC024365
NYC024366
NYC024371
NYC024383

Thanks very much,
