Hey [REDACTED] -

Thank you for the email. The whole team (yours and ours) did a great job with a great outcome. Fingers crossed things work out with the appeal!

Thanks

Subject: [EXTERNAL EMAIL] - Maxwell Trial

[REDACTED]

We wanted to take a moment to remark on the extraordinary work that your C-20 team did on the Maxwell investigation and trial. As you know, they all put so, so much work into the case. And when the lights were shining very brightly at trial, they delivered an historic victory. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were such fantastic partners and team members. From frantic calls with reluctant witnesses and short-notice flights to Florida to collect old boxes, to a very stressful few days of deliberations, it was impressive to see their hard work and good spirits. Rarely are relationships with witnesses and victims so critical to a case, and in that respect in particular we could not have done this without them. But it was truly a team effort – I know that many members of C-20 pitched in at various points, and at trial [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] played an especially big role. It has been a pleasure working with you and your team on this case, and we hope you all have had a little time to rest and savor this hard-fought victory.

Best,
[REDACTED] & [REDACTED]
