Good afternoon

I am providing an update regarding Epstein evidence transport and reviewing status.

Per ODAG office [REDACTED] (see email below) NYO does not need to send agents to DC today to assist in reviewing evidence.

However, NYO agents are already en route to DC with all evidence pertaining to the Epstein suicide investigation as originally planned, and they will continue to WFO transfer the evidence. The evidence will be in place and ready for DOJ review. Agents will return to NY once transfer is completed.

NYO will have all needed agents ready to deploy to DC to assist DOJ in the reviewing all evidence.

Please advise if there are any questions.

Thank you

We will continue w C19 evidence, but no need for the case agent or [REDACTED] to head down tomorrow.

Thanks.

Happy Sunday everyone —

I know NY was planning to send the case agents down to be here tomorrow. Please feel free to stand down on that. There's a few moving parts on the review and want to make sure their trip would be worthwhile if made.

(Adding in [REDACTED] from the Director's Office who is tracking, as well as A/USA [REDACTED] for visibility.)

I can't promise we won't need them to come down in the future, but at least not for Monday and I'm hopeful not the first part of this week. I'll try to give as much notice as possible if we do need them to be here in person at some point.

Thank you,

Wanted to connect you with NY ASAC [REDACTED] and NY SSA [REDACTED] (cc'd). They will be your POCs for case related questions/coordination regarding the Epstein case moving forward. I will be your WFO POC for access, WFO coordination, etc. Feel free to ping us all if you aren't sure who to talk with and we will coordinate to get you what you need.

Appreciate everyone's coordination on this one the past couple of days. Please let me know anytime you need assistance.
