Subject: [EXTERNAL EMAIL] - Threat case involving Claims Administrator in a federal case

Date: Fri, 20 Dec 2024 15:20:01 +0000

Importance: Normal

As we discussed, US District Judge Jed Rakoff called me to report that the Claims Administrator in a case pending before him has been receiving threatening and harassing messages by email at twitter (x) following the administrator's rejection of certain claims filed by [REDACTED]. Apparently, some of the messages are also anti-Semitic. I understand an FBI agent is involved, but it appears that the agent may not be immediately responsive. (FYI, the case in which the administrator is assigned involves claims made by victims of Geoffrey Epstein against Epstein's estate).

The Claims Administrator (the victim) is [REDACTED]. She can be reached at [REDACTED] or [REDACTED]. My initial view is that the Claims Administrator should be considered the equivalent to a member of the Judge's Chambers (in other words, she is an agent of the federal judiciary).

The person sending the messages is [REDACTED]. I do not have location or contact information for Ms. [REDACTED]

Let's talk after you have a chance to look into this?

Thanks so much,

[REDACTED]
