Dear [REDACTED]: My name is Sean O'Hare and I am the executive editor at the Daily Mail. I wonder if you could help or point me in the right direction with the following re GhislAine Maxwell:

In January this year I took a picture of who I believe to be GhislAine Maxwell on a flight from London to jfk.

If it was GhislAine then it contradicts her lawyers' bail request statement that she hadn't left the country for the last year.

If they are lying about this to secure bail then surely we can't believe she won't try to flee if she is granted it.

If I can stand the picture up and say for sure it's her then we can use this as evidence as to why she must remain in jail until her trial.

Can you help me if I send you the picture?

Best wishes

Sean.
