Dear [REDACTED]

Apologies for e-mailing a little out of the blue. I don't believe we have met – although I did briefly meet your predecessor,

[REDACTED]
I am the UK's Counter Terrorism Police Liaison Officer out in the United States, and actually work out of the NY JTTF as Squad CT-5 as a 'Foreign Integrated Person'. I am one of the only British police officers in the US, which means whilst I focus on terrorism, occasionally I am asked to assist with the more sensitive UK enquiries.

I just wanted to have a quick conversation with yourself (or indeed your A/SAC or Case Officer) in relation to the Epstein enquiry as there has been media reporting today which is a little sensitive. I believe you have previously spoken to [REDACTED] (a Met Police Commander) about this case.

Best Regards

[REDACTED]
