A. The Trustees, in their complete and uncontrolled discretion are authorized to distribute any part or all of the income or principal of the Trust (either outright or in further trust, upon such terms and conditions as the Trustees shall determine in their sole and absolute discretion) to any one or more persons then living from a class consisting of [REDACTED] and GHISLAINE N. MAXWELL in such amounts and proportions and to the exclusion of any one or more of them as the Trustees may determine. This power of distribution shall include the power to distribute all of the Trust assets, thereby terminating the Trust.

■. The foregoing notwithstanding, the Trustees then acting (including the case where only one Trustee is then serving), acting jointly (or singly in the case of only one Trustee then acting), shall have the right, during the lifetime of the Grantor, to delete or add beneficiaries under this Article Third by an acknowledged instrument delivered to the Grantor, provided that neither the Grantor, nor any Trustee then acting, nor any member of the family, the estate, the creditors or the creditors of the estate of the Grantor or any such Trustee may be added as a beneficiary under this Trust.

C. The Trustees shall not be accountable to any Court or any person regarding the exercise or nonexercise of this completely discretionary authority. Any income not distributed may be added to principal.

D. Unless terminated by the Trustees at an earlier date, this Trust shall terminate twenty-one years after the death of the last survivor of the Grantor, ■ and GHISLAINE N. MAXWELL, and thereafter the then remaining principal shall be paid to EPSTEIN INTERESTS, a Trust, organized under the laws of the State of New York.

E. The Trust created pursuant to this Trust Agreement may be referred to as "BUTTERFLY TRUST."

FOURTH

Governing Law; Claims or Charges Against Grantor or his Estate

A. This Trust Agreement and the Trust hereby created shall be construed under, and governed by, the laws of the United States Virgin Islands.

B. No portion of the income or principal of the Trust shall be liable for the payment of any taxes, liabilities, debts or any other claims or charges against the Grantor or the estate of the Grantor.

FIFTH

Irrevocability; Severability

A. This Trust Agreement and the Trust created hereunder are irrevocable. Neither the Grantor nor any other person shall have the right to alter, amend, revoke or terminate this Trust Agreement or the Trust created hereunder.

B. Should any part, clause, provision or condition of this Trust Agreement be held to be void or invalid, then such voidance or invalidity shall not affect any other part, clause, provision or condition hereof, but the remainder of this Trust Agreement shall be effective as though such void or invalid part clause, provision or condition had not been contained herein.

SIXTH

Trustees

A. The acting Trustees (or Trustee) of the Trust are authorized to designate one or more additional or successor Trustees of the Trust.

B. If either DARREN K. INDYKE or RICHARD KAHN is no longer acting hereunder, and no successor has been designated as provided hereunder, then Harry Beller shall act as successor Trustee. If at any time there is only one Trustee acting hereunder, and no successor has been designated as provided hereunder, then such acting Trustee may, but need not, appoint a Co-Trustee to act with him.

C. Designations shall be in writing and may be revoked in writing by the maker thereof, at any time prior to the qualification of the Trustee so designated.

D. Any Trustee may resign by giving notice to take effect on the date specified in said notice, except that if the resigning Trustee is the last acting Trustee, and no successor designated pursuant to the provisions of this Article is available to succeed him, his resignation shall not be effective until he designates his successor and such successor qualifies to act.

E. A Trustee may resign or qualify only by a written instrument mailed or delivered to a Trustee then acting, or if none, to his successor, in the case of a resignation, or in any case to the Grantor.

F. No Trustee at any time acting hereunder shall be required to give any bond, undertaking or other security for the faithful performance of his duties in any jurisdiction.

G. Anything contained in the foregoing provisions notwithstanding, neither the Grantor nor any person who is a person described in Section 672(c) of the Code, in relation to the Grantor, shall be appointed as a Trustee of the Trust.

SEVENTH

Settlement of Trustees' Accounts; Exoneration of Trustees

A. The Trustees shall not be required to file or render, and the Grantor waives and excuses the filing with, or rendering to, any Court of an account of their transactions with respect to the Trust or of inventories, accounts, statements or reports of principal and/or income in respect of the Trust. Nevertheless, the Trustees may at any time and from time to time render an account of their transactions with respect to the Trust. The Grantor shall have full power to settle finally any such account or to waive the same, and on the basis of such account or waiver, to release the Trustees, individually, and as Trustees, from all accountability, liability and responsibility for their acts or omissions as Trustees. Any such settlement and release or waiver and release shall be binding upon all persons, whether or not then in being, then or thereafter interested in either the income or the principal of the Trust and shall have the force and effect of a final decree, judgment or order of a court of competent jurisdiction rendered in an appropriate action or proceeding for the judicial settlement of such an account in which action or proceeding jurisdiction was obtained over all necessary and proper parties. The expenses of any such accounting shall be a proper administration expense of the Trust payable from principal or income of the Trust, or partly from each, as the Trustees, in their discretion, shall determine. The foregoing provision, however, shall not preclude the Trustees from having their accounts judicially settled, if they shall so desire, and the expenses of a judicial accounting shall be a proper administration expense of the Trust payable from principal.

B. If any Trustee shall resign as a Trustee hereunder, the continuing Trustee or Trustees may deliver to the Trustee so resigning, an instrument whereby such resigning Trustee shall be released and discharged, to the extent stated therein, of and from any and all accountability, liability and responsibility for acts or omissions as Trustee. Any such release and discharge shall be binding upon all persons, whether or not then in being, then or thereafter interested in either the income or the principal of the Trust and shall have the force and effect of a final decree, judgment or order of a court of competent jurisdiction rendered in an appropriate action or proceeding for the judicial settlement of the account of such Trustee, in which action or proceeding jurisdiction was obtained over all necessary and proper parties. The foregoing provision, however, shall not preclude any Trustee so resigning from having his, her or its account judicially settled. The expenses of any judicial accounting rendered by a Trustee who shall resign shall be a proper administration expense of the Trust payable from principal.

C. In addition to the foregoing, the Trustees are hereby authorized, at any time and from time to time, with respect to the Trust, to settle the accounts of the Trustees by agreement between or among the Trustees and the then adult beneficiary of the income and the beneficiary or beneficiaries who would be entitled to the principal in case the Trust was to terminate at the time of such agreement, excluding any who are then incompetent, which agreement shall bind all persons, whether or not then in being, then or thereafter interested in either the income or the principal of the Trust. Any such settlement shall have the force and effect of a final decree, judgment or order of a court of competent jurisdiction rendered in an appropriate action or proceeding for the judicial settlement of such account, in which action or proceeding jurisdiction was obtained over all necessary and proper parties. The expenses of any such account shall be a proper administration expense of the Trust payable from principal or income of the Trust, or partly from each, as the Trustees, in their discretion, shall determine.

D. No Trustee shall be accountable, liable or responsible for any act, default, negligence or omission of any other Trustee.

E. No Trustee acting hereunder shall be liable for any loss or damage which may occur hereunder, unless due to willful default, deliberate wrongdoing or willful violation of an express provision hereof.

EIGHTH

7. To vote, in person or by proxy, all stocks and other securities held by the Trust; to grant, exercise or sell rights to subscribe to stock and securities and options of any nature; to amortize or refrain from amortizing premiums on bonds or other securities which the Trustees may purchase or receive; to participate in reorganizations, mergers, liquidations or dissolutions, and contribute to the expense of, and deposit securities with protective committees in connection therewith; to participate in voting trusts; and generally exercise, in respect of said stock and securities, all rights, powers and privileges which may be lawfully exercised by any person owning similar property in his own right.

8. To employ any investment counsel, corporate custodians, agents, accountants, brokers and attorneys which the Trustees may select and pay the charges thereof, and the Trustees, or a partnership, corporation or other entity in which any Trustee shall be interested, or by which any Trustee may be employed, may be retained in any such capacity, and, in such event, the charges which shall be payable to such Trustee, or to any such partnership, corporation or other entity, shall be in addition to commissions or compensation otherwise allowable to such Trustee and may be paid without prior judicial approval.

9. In any case in which the Trustees are authorized or required to pay or distribute any share of the Trust, to make such payment or distribution in kind, or in cash or partly in each and, in connection therewith, to allocate equal or unequal interests in, or amounts of, specific property in satisfaction of such payment or distribution.

10. To settle, adjust, compromise or submit to arbitration any dispute, claim or controversy in which the Trust may be in any way interested.

11. To borrow money from any person, partnership, corporation or other entity, who may be a Trustee or a partnership, corporation or other entity in which any Trustee may be interested, or by which any Trustee may be employed, for the purpose of meeting any and all charges against the Trust or for any other purpose connected with the administration, preservation, improvement or enhancement in value of the Trust, and, in connection with any such borrowing, to pledge, hypothecate or mortgage any part or all of the assets of the Trust.

12. To keep any or all of the securities at any time forming a part of the Trust in the name of one or more nominees.

13. In any case where doubt or uncertainty exists under applicable law or this Trust Agreement, to (i) credit receipts to principal or income, or partly to each and (ii) charge expenses against principal or income, or partly against each.

14. By instrument or instruments signed by all of the Trustees qualified and acting as such at any time, to delegate, in whole or in part, to any person or persons (including any one or more of the Trustees) the authority and power to (i) sign checks, drafts or orders for the payment or withdrawal of funds from any account in which funds of the Trust hereunder shall be deposited, (ii) endorse for sale, transfer or delivery, or sell, transfer or deliver, or purchase or otherwise acquire, any and all stocks, stock warrants, stock rights, bonds or other securities whatsoever, and (iii) gain access to any safe deposit box which may be in the names of the Trustees and remove part or all of the contents of any such safe deposit box and release and surrender the same.

15. To remove the assets of the Trust to, or hold and administer any such assets in, such location or locations within or without the State of Ohio as the Trustees, in their discretion, shall select.

16. To make, or retain from making, elections permitted under any applicable tax law, without regard to the effect of any such election on the interest of any beneficiary of the Trust and, if any such election shall be made, to apportion, or refrain from apportioning, any benefits thereof among the respective interests of the beneficiaries of the Trust, all in such manner as the Trustees shall deem appropriate.

17. To exercise all authority, powers, privileges and discretion, conferred in this Article after the termination of the Trust created under this Trust Agreement and until all of the assets of the Trust are fully distributed.

■. No person or party dealing with the Trustees shall be bound to see to the application of any money or other consideration paid by them to the Trustees.

C. Neither the principal nor the income of the Trust or any part thereof, shall or may at any time be liable or subject in any matter whatsoever to the debts or liabilities of any beneficiary entitled to receive any principal or income therefrom, nor shall the principal or income of the Trust be liable to attachment by garnishment proceedings or other legal process issued by any creditor of any beneficiary of the Trust for debts heretofore or hereafter contracted by such beneficiary; nor shall any assignment, conveyance, charge, encumbrance or order, either of principal or income, given by any such beneficiary be valid.

D. This Trust Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but together which shall constitute one instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Grantor and the Trustees have executed this Trust Agreement on the day and year first above written.
