Notes : Subject: including the sweetheart deal he received from prosecutors that allowed him to evade meaningful consequences. Further mentions his previous letter including the Department's response that the Office of Professional Responsibility (OPR) had opened an investigation into allegations that Department attorneys may have committed professional misconduct in the manner in which the Epstein criminal matter was resolved. Urging OPR to conclude its investigation as expeditiously as possible and to release any claims of privilege and allow attorney Marie Villafana to disclose any and all relevant testimony to the Senate Judiciary Committee.
