Re: [REDACTED]

Dear Mr. Dutko:

I am writing to clarify the ground rules for the interview with your client, [REDACTED] ("your client"), to occur April 2, 2007.

Ms. [REDACTED] is not a target of this investigation, but instead is being interviewed as a victim/witness. However, to address any concern about criminal exposure, if your client complies with every provision of this agreement, then no testimony or other information provided by your client, or any information directly or indirectly derived therefrom, will be used by the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Florida ("this Office") against your client in any criminal case, except a prosecution for perjury or giving a false statement.

Your client agrees to be fully interviewed, that is, to provide information concerning your client's knowledge of, and participation in criminal activity, including but not limited to the procurement of prostitutes. The protection of this letter applies to an interview that will be conducted by this Office, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and any other federal law enforcement agency this Office may require. The protection provided by this letter requires your client to provide information that is truthful, complete, and accurate.

If your client gives materially false, incomplete, or misleading information, then this Office may use such information in any matter or proceeding and your client is subject to prosecution for perjury, obstruction of justice, and making false statements to government agencies. Any such prosecution may be based upon information provided by your client during the course of the interview, and such information, including your client's statements, will be admissible against your client in any grand jury or other proceeding.

This Office also may use statements made by your client in the interview and all evidence derived directly or indirectly therefrom for the purpose of impeachment or cross-examination if she testifies at any trial or hearing. This provision is necessary to ensure that your client does not make or offer any false representation or statement in any proceeding or to a government agency or commit perjury during any testimony.

Your client further agrees that attorneys from this Office may be present at the interview, and agrees not to seek disqualification of any such attorney from any proceeding or trial because of their participation at the interview.

The entire agreement between this Office and your client is set forth in this letter. No additional promises, agreements, or conditions have been entered into and none will be entered into unless in writing and signed by all parties.

If the foregoing accurately reflects the understanding and agreement between this Office and your client, it is requested that you and your client execute this letter as provided below.

Sincerely,

R. Alexander Acosta
United States Attorney
