Subject: FW: A question regarding a very old case

[REDACTED],

[REDACTED], a Criminal AUSA in Florida, is seeking access to our files in US v. Jeffrey Epstein & Ivan Fisher, 96 Civ. 8307 (DC), my infamous landlord-tenant case. Would it be possible for you to have someone order the files for her? She is looking for Epstein's deposition transcript.

Complicating matters is the fact that Epstein had a protective order regarding certain financial discovery, so, assuming the files can be located, it would be necessary to have someone review the transcript before giving [REDACTED] a copy.

[REDACTED] contact information is below.

Many thanks. Hope all is well.

If it isn't too much trouble. Let me just review the protective order that you sent to me to make sure I don't get us into trouble by looking at those items for possible use in my case.

I have a very vague memory of deposing him. Do you want me to put you in touch with someone in the USAO to see if they can order the file?

Hi [REDACTED] – I saw that you were the AUSA who worked on a case several years ago against Jeffrey Epstein involving the lease of a former embassy. Do you remember anything about the case that you might be willing to share?
