I'm sorry to report that we retrieved the closed files in this case and were not able to locate the Epstein deposition.

Right. The docket entry for the protective order states, "The Government may not use confidential information produced in discovery pursuant to the protective order for any purpose other than prosecuting this lawsuit, absent further order of the Court."

My review of the order is that, if a depo even exists, I can review it, but I can't use it in connection with any other litigation. Do you agree, [REDACTED]?

Yes I will. I assume you have worked out the issues related to the protective order.

Hi [REDACTED] - Can you ask your office to retrieve the file? It would be most appreciated. Thank you!

Unfortunately my Clerk's office misunderstood my request and retrieved the court file and just spent several hours copying it, rather than retrieving the USAO file. So if there are any documents in the court file that you need, I probably have those. The court file does not have a copy of the Epstein deposition. If you want me to have our Clerk's office retrieve our USAO file, I can do so but I do not know how long it will take. Please let me know.

██████████, a Criminal AUSA in Florida, is seeking access to our files in US █ Jeffrey Epstein & Ivan Fisher, 96 Civ. 8307 (DC), my infamous landlord-tenant case. Would it be possible for you to have someone order the files for her? She is looking for Epstein's deposition transcript.

Complicating matters is the fact that Epstein had a protective order regarding certain financial discovery, so, assuming the files can be located, it would be necessary to have someone review the transcript before giving █ a copy.

██████████'s contact information is below.

Many thanks. Hope all is well.

If it isn't too much trouble. Let me just review the protective order that you sent to me to make sure I don't get us into trouble by looking at those items for possible use in my case.

Hi [REDACTED] - I saw that you were the AUSA who worked on a case several years ago against Jeffrey Epstein involving the lease of a former embassy. Do you remember anything about the case that you might be willing to share?
