Good morning, Dr. [REDACTED] I never received a response from this e-mail that I sent a while ago. Can you respond and let me know if you are available to do a conference call?

Thank you.

Subject: Memorandum regarding investigation

Dear Dr. [REDACTED]: I have enclosed a memo giving the status of the investigation and the topics that I am hoping you can cover, if this case ever gets to trial. Perhaps we could do a conference call with the FBI agents on Wednesday or Friday of next week to go over these topics?

Thank you again.
