

[REDACTED]

Subject: RE: Reading through the Jane Doe Responses now

Date: Tue, 03 May 2011 13:46:51 +0000

Importance: Normal

[REDACTED]

I decided not to respond at all. He would find fault in whatever I said.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Sent: Tuesday, May 03, 2011 9:42 AM

[REDACTED]

Subject: Reading through the Jane Doe Responses now

Hi Dexter – I got home from vacation yesterday afternoon and just got in to the office. I am reading through all the responses now.

I have to run to a meeting at the FBI in a couple of minutes and I haven't finished reading them all, but I see multiple mentions that we never responded to their email about the 6(e) issue. I had sent you some stuff before I left and talked about it with E [REDACTED] and I thought you and I had talked about it on the phone, too, but I must admit that I can't remember whether we discussed it live or if I just emailed you. Did you decide not to respond at all or is the Professor misstating this?

Can we set up a time to discuss after we have a chance to read everything? I am free any time tomorrow.

Thank you, Dexter!

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]