Hi Brad – I just left you a voicemail with some urgent questions. [REDACTED] sent me a motion to stay discovery that our office wants to file under seal because it will contain grand jury information. The motion says that [REDACTED] conferred with you, but I can't tell whether he really did or not or if he just put that in intending to confer with you and he hasn't responded to my emails or calls.

Do you: (1) object to the motion to stay?

And (2) object to the motion to file it under seal?
