Good luck with the interview!

I didn't realize you were still dealing with OPR. What a nightmare.

Have you tried yoga? I find it really helps with stress and anxiety.

Thanks. I am really nervous. I got an interview for the magistrate position, but between this and the OPR thing, I am just a bundle of nerves.

Really hard to say. We won on some things, but Judge didn't like our argument re rights don't attach pre-charging.
