Jeff, can I tell you how wonderful you are? Life has not been good. I had to file my final appeal of the OPR thing yesterday, which, as usual, has sent me to the depths of depression. I was just putting it into final form and I got three emails regarding Epstein. Knowing that you are out there thinking of me has really helped, and I have a big note on my desk to call you today.

I am running over to grand jury, but will call you when I get back.

Thank you so much for thinking of me.

Marie:

Just checking in to see how you are. I hope everything is ok.
