Just FYI -- The blog is, for the most part, completely nuts, but the link to William Riley is real. William Riley is the person who removed the computers from Mr. Epstein's house after Epstein or Roy Black somehow found out that [REDACTED] state search warrant was coming. (It was suspected that [REDACTED] court reporter at the state courthouse was the source of the leak, but never confirmed.) He also was one of the private investigators who investigated the agents and probably me during the investigation.

Special Agent [REDACTED] was followed to her home this past weekend, but it is believed that it was [REDACTED] reporter (British accent).

See how much fun this is!
