I actually went to one of the e-mails you sent to me, highlighted your name, and obtained the e-mail address from that contact card. Since there are several [REDACTED] in the DOJ, I thought that was probably the best way. We'll see if it works.

I don't know that the email addresses with the usa.doj.gov domain work correctly. The email address I use is: [REDACTED]. Cassell has it. In fact, he has sent me 3 emails over the last two days as either a direct recipient or as a "cc" recipient.

Hi Jackie and ██████

Perhaps tomorrow you can help us by making sure we have all the right email contacts for the Epstein side of the case and the Government side of the case. That way, we have a convenient way to correspond with everyone on issue of interest.

Subject: Epstein's Request for Prospective Intervention -- no conference among the parties

Dear Jackie,

We read with interest Epstein's recent motion for "Prospective Limited Intervention at the Remedy Stage of These Proceedings," DE 207. However, in reviewing the motion, we did not see the statement of Pre-Filing Conference, required by the Court's Local Rules. See Local Rule 7.1(A)(3). This requirement cannot be ignored, and we would like the opportunity to confer with you and the Government before responding.

Accordingly, one option for us would be to file a response to deny your motion for your failure to hold the appropriate conference with the parties. But another option would be for you schedule a conference with all three parties – i.e., the Epstein group, the Government, and victims' counsel – to discuss the issue. This would also provide an opportunity for us to determine what the Government's position is on this motion.

Please advise as to whether you agree that your motion is defective under the local rules and, if so, how you propose to remedy this defect.

In light of these additional complications, please also advise as to your position on whether you would oppose a ten-day extension of time (to and including August 6, 2013), for the victims to respond to the motion. (And [REDACTED] – we would like your position on an extension as well.)

Thanks for your attention to these issues.
