I'm sure that's fine; can I look at it more closely after oral argument and get back to you mid-morning?

Thanks,

Dear [REDACTED] – As per usual, Prof. Cassell is overly pushy.

Would you mind if I respond – or [REDACTED] responds – as follows:

Dear Paul:

All matters dealing with the Eleventh Circuit are handled by the Appellate Division. Your inquiry has been forwarded and we will respond when we have an answer. In the meantime, we are busy addressing the District Court's Friday deadline.

Hi [REDACTED]

What is the Government doing to correct the false impression? We contacted you on Monday about this and, as you know, we are hoping for a ruling from the Eleventh Circuit quickly.

If you do not have time to correct this false impression, please just send us a one-sentence email and Brad and I will provide it to the Eleventh Circuit.

Thanks for your prompt attention to this. We do not believe it is fair for Epstein to falsely represent the Government's position and then have the Government, through silence, allow that false representation to be the potential basis of Eleventh Circuit action.

Subject: RE: Representation in Epstein's Response to our Motion to Dismiss

Hi [REDACTED]

Here is Epstein's response to the motion to dismiss. With the Government not filing anything on the motion to dismiss, it is allowing Epstein to represent to the CA11 that the Government agrees with his position -- the Government needs to correct that false impression. Thanks for your quick attention to this.

Paul,

I have not seen Mr. Epstein's response to your motion to dismiss in the Eleventh Circuit. When was it filed? Could you provide me with a copy? Thank you.

Dear [REDACTED],

You will have seen Epstein's response to our motion to dismiss, in which he states: "Intervenors have also contended that the correspondence was privileged and confidential, a position with which the government agrees." (p. 18)

I have not seen anything in the record to support that statement. To the contrary, the only thing I have seen from the Government is its statement in doc. #98: "Movant Epstein bears the burden of establishing that the communications he seeks to withhold from disclosure fall within the attorney-client or other privilege." (Doc. #98 at 4).

Can you confirm that Epstein's statement that the Government agrees on privilege and confidentiality is false? And, if so, is the Government planning to do anything to correct the incorrect representation that Epstein has made to the Eleventh Circuit?

Thanks in advance for your rapid response on this issue. It would be very unfortunate if the Eleventh Circuit were to take action in this case based on false information about the Government's position.

[REDACTED]/Marie,

What time today can you discuss Epstein's recently filed motion for limited intervention? We can make ourselves available any time other than between 3-4. Please let us know what number to call you on and we will call at precisely that time so as not to inconvenience you any longer than necessary. Thank you.
