Subject: WSJ follow-up question

Hi Marlene, I'm writing a follow-up post for WSJ's Law Blog looking at the "Jane Doe" lawsuit itself and the arguments put forward by the government and the plaintiffs. I just wanted to check to see if you wanted to include any additional comment on the merits of the lawsuit. At the moment, I'm just quoting from government briefs outlining its position.

Thanks,
Jacob

Hi Marlene, I'm a reporter at WSJ. I wanted to know if the U.S. Attorney's office in Miami has any comment on the Dec. 30th motion (attached) filed in JANE DOE #1 and JANE DOE #2 [REDACTED] UNITED STATES (9:08-cv-80736), a lawsuit concerning the government's non-prosecution agreement with Jeffrey Epstein. As widely reported, the motion, which asks the court to allow two other women to join the action, includes new allegations against Prince Andrew and Harvard professor Alan Dershowitz.

I can be reached by email or by phone at [REDACTED].

Thanks,
Jacob
