That is fine with me. Or if you want to keep the current date for now and see where we are next week, that is fine with me, as well.

Apparently those dates don't work for Jay Howell. Orchestrating around this many schedules is difficult. Not impossible but maybe not necessary. By that I mean does it make more sense to inform Judge Brannon that we are communicating with one another to see if a resolution is possible without the need for mediator input? If there comes a point where we think the mediator could help then we can approach him then. In the meantime, we can continue discussions and see whether we are able to reach an agreement or not.

Just an idea. Let me know what you think.

Subject: Rescheduling Settlement Conference

Hi Paul and Brad – We are available on July 21st and July 22nd. Judge Brannon is on duty the weeks of July 25th and August 1st, and I recall from our last session that he does not schedule settlement conferences while he is on duty.

We, of course, do not oppose a motion to reschedule. Please let me know if you need anything from me.

Best regards,
Marie
