Hi Brad – Have you had a chance to speak to [REDACTED] yet? We would like to recommend that we all get together again to try to reach a final agreement, get all the documents signed, and schedule the hearing with Judge Marra, the meeting with the U.S. Attorney, and the meeting in DC.

We would like to recommend some time during the week of August 22nd. That way, [REDACTED] will have had her hearing in Tampa and she will either be out of custody, or we can arrange to meet with her somewhere outside the jail in Tampa. If we are unsuccessful, then we can set a briefing schedule to finalize the summary judgment situation.

I think you probably need to meet with [REDACTED] in advance of the joint meeting, and if you need help setting that up, or even just setting up a private call with [REDACTED] to discuss the case, let me know. I can try to work with the FBI to have [REDACTED] released into their custody for a day to discuss the case with you.

Just give me an update when you can.

Thank you.
