Brad – Our final list had 32. [REDACTED] were not on the list provided to Epstein and, therefore, cannot be on this list. I will remove them, fix spellings, and add the one person that you left off.

Marie,

I can't put my finger on the actual document listing the victims, but I found in an email a typed list that I believe was derived from that document. For now, it is the best I can find, although if I remember the number of identified victims was 34, so it appears this list is one short for some reason.
