From blood-stained guajiros to litigious ex-convicts to shameful rappers to slithering billionaires, this week proved that moronic behavior knows no boundaries of class or race. In South Florida, pea-sized brains can be found in all sorts of heads.

5. Billionaire Jeffrey Epstein, who forgot to pay his sex offender bill.

33 women, as young as 14, were prepared to testify that Epstein sexually assaulted them. If he was you average schlub, he would be carving soap sculptures in a cell for at least a couple of decades. But Epstein was sentenced to only eighteen months in prison and a year of house arrest in his $6.8 million Palm Beach mansion.

He dodged real punishment from the feds by agreeing to pay legal fees for his victims, but he's refused to keep up with the payments and now reportedly owes \$2 million-- roughly the cost of a hot-air balloon ride to Fiji followed by sky-diving into a custom-built lake of champagne and pomegranate seeds, or whatever it is billionaires do with their money.

Where's an under-the-bridge molester colony when you need one?
