When it rains, it pours . . . .

This was on the front page of the Palm Beach Post today. It makes me very glad that I am no longer in civil practice, because I am amazed at how low these civil lawyers are allowed to go. This also increases my concern about releasing the names of the additional potential victims because of what Epstein's lawyers may do to them.

And when do I get to tell someone that I did not "craft" this deal?
