Okay. I heard from 2 people that he was spotted in NEW YORK a few days ago. I think even for the State that would be a violation of community control!

Called and he is out of the office until the 17th. I spoke to [REDACTED] the number 2 guy and told him we had heard this wild rumor-said they had heard it too. Told him it was totally untrue and we had checked with New York. Said he would pass it up the chain. Didn't ask him about the other. [REDACTED]

If you haven't spoken to him yet, can you ask him what will happen if he who shall not be named violates a condition of community control?
