I'm wondering if there's any change in your investigation. [REDACTED] an attorney in your district, has appeared for one of our GJ witnesses. He asked me, among other people, if I knew about the Epstein case and if I knew you. I said I hadn't met anyone in your office. I thought it was pretty interesting that he brought it up. I played dumb.

What's he like? He complained to one of our local attorneys that I was a bitch – jeez, I thought the conversation was pleasant??? I'll try harder next time
