the info about 90 days was something the [REDACTED] thought Barry said to him at a meeting. He was trying to confirm it. Talked to [REDACTED] and she said the state statute is three years and will run on the victims they have in Oct or so of this year. They are working on the memo for [REDACTED]. Please don't let this spoil your trip—I know I am spitting into the wind with this advice but try anyway!!!! Thought for the day for EJ—You know you are a redneck if you have ever bought your underwear at a yard sale!!!!!!
